Sir,

With reference to the subject cited above, I have the honour to state following few points in favour of Media report dt. 02/08/2015 published in the Agradut Barta.

1. Sir It is to state that the undersigned suggested to the general public not require for submit Affidavit from the court due to minor mistakes where the Middle man take sufficient money from Public. It is known from the public that the middle man takes Rs 500, Rs 300 and Rs 200 in such affidavit. Therefore the Association of Advocates are perhaps published such types of News from their end. The college teacher Association, School teacher Association of Majuli, the student body AASU, TMPK and Congress youth Association are helping people how to fill up Application Forms. Thus where we have achieved 63% till date.

2. The all Majuli Gaonbuha Association are also camping and holding meeting place to place for awareness of NRC Application Forms fill up in remoteness area. The remoteness area of char chapori people area also coming to the Officer to get the Legacy data, Marriage woman migration certificate from the panchayat offices. —

3. Moreover a team of Officers and office staff shall proceed to the remoteness areas, like Ahataguri char, Karatipar and Dakhin Ahataguri char areas to collect the Application Forms by machine boat from 18th to 24th August 2015 where SC & ST people are living.

This is for far of your kind information and necessary action.

① Enclosed — sheets.

Yours Faithfully
